

I believe the New Jersey, "Do Not Call List" should remain the same. I am now able to enjoy my days and nights without telemarketers calling and disturbing me. We should all have a place where we are not disturbed. My home is now my safe haven. Leave it the way it is.